Name Glossary

Almost all of the characters in Please Tell Me! Galko-chan have nicknames based on one of their primary characteristics, and combined with a common Japanese name ending such as "ko" or "mi" for girls, and "o" or "ta" for boys. Let's take a closer look!

Galko: from "gyaru" or "Gal," which is Galko's style. Gal subculture is mostly associated with Japanese girls in their teens to late twenties: they're very fashionable, often tan and/or blonde, and use a lot of unique slang. Galko also has a special sound effect in Japanese written as "gyarun" or "gyarurun" (which is punning off of "gyaru"), so this is often translated as variations of "galoing."

Otako: from "otaku," a geek.

Ojou: literally "young lady," often describing a rich or especially proper girl.

Charao: from "charai," meaning flashy or superficial.

Otao: again from "otaku," a geek.

Supoo: from "supootsu," i.e. sports.

lincho: from "iinchou," committee chairman/Class Rep.

Kuseeta: from "kuse," curly or messy (as in his hair).

Tsunno: from "tsundere," a girl who is outwardly mean to someone but secretly likes them.

Kibami: from "kiba," fangs.

Agemi: from "age," literally "up" or "going up," which frequently appears in Gal girl slang like "ageage" (excitement/high spirits) or "agepoyo" (fun/happiness).

Yabana: from "yabai," another exclamation popular with Gals, which can mean "awful" or "awesome," depending on the context.

Okako: from "okaruto," occult.

Metako: from "metal."

Fushigi-chan: "fushigi" means a mystery, or as an adjective, "strange" or "mysterious."

Nikuko: from "niku," which means "meat."

next time!
